

United States District Court
District of Massachusetts

Michelle M. Torrey
Plaintiff,

Civil Action No
24-10864-WGY

v.
FBI,
United States of America,
et al., Defendants.
Defendants.

FILED
CLERK'S OFFICE

U.S. DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MASS.

Motion to leave and file

Motion to Request Court to Appoint Counsel.

The Plaintiff Michelle Torrey requests again to appeal to the Court to appoint counsel. I have attached at least 7 denials from Attorney's that have declined to litigate this case and I beg the court to reconsider my request as I have provided emails from the Attorney's and proof that I have tried and from the inception of my alleged civil rights violations that occurred at my home; I have diligently tried to obtain counsel. The CAFRA Law that I quoted in all previous requests does state that I should have counsel and the court can appoint counsel. You said in previous denials that if I could show evidence you would reconsider your ruling. You can confer with all attorneys attached. I sent complaint as well as other documents to see if they would accept my case. Your honor I need help as I am not a lawyer. The Court should want to see justice done.

Sincerely,

Michelle M. Torrey 1/31/25
